5.4.2: Alumni contribute and engage significantly to the development of Institution through academic and other support system.

Engaging alumni in the development process is a continuous process of Government Autonomous College, Angul. There is meaningful interaction of alumni in coordination with ALUMNI ASSOCIATION. The committee recognizes alumni contribution as well as different activities conducted by them for the growth of this institution and their active involvement fosters a sense of shared purpose. Under different support systems, seminars by alumni and MoU with ICAI, Talcher-Angul Chapter College, Talcher were initiated and managed by distinguished alumni that categorized as academic support to this institute. Likewise, under other support system, their dynamic engagement in activities such as plantation, blood donation camp, filaria elimination programme, observation of international yoga day and Gandhi jayanti, state level alumni meeting, gender sensitization awareness, sports competition etc builds a supportive community for greater interest of the institute. The institute engages the alumni in organizing various academic and other support activities time to time during last five years. Hence, alumni serve as a bridge between our institution's past and future, playing a crucial role in its growth and development. Their active engagement and generous contribution can profoundly impact various aspects of institutional advancement.
