Sub: Celebration of the Communal Harmony Campaign Week from 19th to 25th November 2024 and Flag Day on 25th November 2024 (Monday) of NFCH- publicity materials regarding.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The National Foundation for Communal Harmony (NFCH), an autonomous organization under the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India observes Communal Harmony Campaign Week every year from 19th to 25th November. The last working day of the week is observed as the Flag Day of the Foundation. As the part of the annual celebration this year too, the Foundation is observing Communal Harmony Campaign Week from 19th to 25th November 2024 and the Flag Day will be observed on 25th November 2024 (Monday). The celebrations are organized to spread the message of peace, harmony and National integration. It is also utilized for fund raising to enhance resources of the Foundation to carry out its activities through various schemes and projects.

2. The main objective of the Foundation is to promote communal harmony and national integration through variety of schemes and activities; and provide financial support for effective rehabilitation of child victims of communal, caste, ethnic or terrorist violence and their care and education under Project 'Assist'. The Foundation has been collaborating with Central/State Governments, District Administrations, reputed academic institutions, civil/ voluntary organizations and other likeminded organizations to conduct variety of programmes including seminars, symposiums, cultural events, interfaith dialogue, literary competitions and other similar significant initiatives to achieve its mandate.
3. The NFCH had received a modest corpus from the Government of India in 1992. The Foundation does not receive any regular grant/financial support from the Government. The interest earned thereon is not adequate to carry forward our expanding activities. However, the Memorandum of Association (MoA) of the Foundation allows for collection of donations from different sources for supporting destitute children and for carrying out its activities. As such, celebration of the Communal Harmony Campaign Week and observing of Flag Day, are utilized by the Foundation as an opportunity to generate additional resources by raising funds/donations through voluntary contributions. For this purpose, various publicity materials such as flag stickers, posters, wrappers, pamphlet, etc. are being sent to your organization/institution.

4. NFCH would like to appeal for active participation of your institution to achieve this noble cause for promotion of peace, harmony and National integration. The Foundation appreciates your organization to be partnering in observance of Communal Harmony Campaign Week 2024 from 19th to 25th November 2024 by involving all segments of the society particularly, youth, students and teachers in observing the CHC Week 2024. You are requested to organize intensive campaign for sensitizing students, teachers and youth about the need for fostering harmony, National integration and unity through organizing seminars, essay/painting/debate competitions, cultural activities, marathon, runs/rallies etc. The first three winners of the competitions will be felicitated by the Foundation by providing Certificates. A brief comprehensive report along with photographs of the celebration may please be send to the Foundation for further reference and necessary action.

5. The Following publicity material is being sent herewith for observance of Communal Harmony Campaign Week and Flag Day 2024. Additional material, if required, may be obtained from the Foundation:

Flag stickers	:	1000/300
Posters	:	2
